S. V. D. C. Frank E. Johnson, chairman of the committee on acts and resolutions, reported unfavorably upon the resolution not to change the name of the organization from the United Spanish War Veterans to Spanish War Veterans to Spanish War Veterans. A warm discussion followed that was led by Past Department Commander William Lounsbury of Bridgeport, who favored the retention of the present warm. cetention of the present name. Past Commander in Chief Charles W. New-ton of Hartford argued for the change. When it came to a vote the Newton forces were the stronger and the en-campment voted 37 for the change and 20 against, but did not instruct the department commander specifically as to the course to pursue at the national encampment at Denver, Col.
